PARTICIPATION AND ATTENDANCE

We would like to invite undergraduate, MA and PhD students and young researchers to attend, as well as those who are interested in reflecting on the latest lines of translation research. We would also like to encourage translation MA and PhD students and young researchers to send their communication proposals on their research projects.

All proposals must be adapted to the conference lines of research, they must be original and unpublished, and they may be written in Spanish or English. Abstracts should be between 200 and 300 words long without counting the references, and must be accompanied by a biographical note. They must be sent only through the participation form available in the following link: <https://forms.gle/1UkoLywzs6DQrhqQA>
